

8th Annual Mat-Su Salmon Science and Conservation Symposium

November 18 & 19, 2015

Palmer Community Center (Depot) | 610 S. Valley Way, Palmer, AK

The 8th annual Mat-Su Salmon Symposium is a forum to share information on Mat-Su Basin watersheds, salmon and salmon habitat and to promote an exchange of ideas about salmon science and conservation in the Mat-Su Basin.

Keynote Speaker: Richard Nelson

Ph.D. Cultural Anthropology

Richard Nelson is a cultural anthropologist, award-winning author, radio producer and natural sounds recordist. He produced Encounters, a public radio program about the natural world and was Alaska's Writer laureate. His current endeavor is the online project SalmonWorld. Come meet Richard and learn how he has used multiple mediums of written word, sound and film to communicate the miracle of salmon and our human relationship to them.

New! Join us for an evening public presentation by Richard Nelson on the wonder of salmon.

Wednesday, November 18th, 6:30 - 7:30 pm at the Palmer Depot. Everyone welcome.

Free Admission—$10 suggested donation.

Find registration and presentation information in your email or at:

www.matsusalmon.org

Presentation & poster abstracts due October 7

Registration due October 28

$25/day to attend. Students free.

Includes lunch, snacks and refreshments. If expense is prohibitive, please contact us.

Questions & Registration: MatSuSalmon@TNC.org or JSpeed@TNC.org

